FOR THE HOLIDAY WEEK.

Christmas Novelties—Bargains in all Lines.

As the coming week will see the spending of more money than for any week of the year, perhaps, a few suggestions to buyers will not be out of place, especially as we refer to a sale of the character of which demands attention from every judicious buyer.

The stock at H. J. Gillen's is no half stock or a "picked up" holiday line of cheap goods, but a complete line of bona fide warranted goods in each and every department. The slaughter on silks in black and colors continues, and the entire choice line of blacks especially is offered at prices absolutely unapproachable by competitors hereabouts. The dress goods house is one particularly attractive for the holidays.

THE CLOAK STOCK
Is still unbroken. In spite of the fact that this season has been the largest the house has ever known, all owing to the immense line carried and the low prices made. In seal plushes they can now furnish all sizes from 34 to 46 inclusive. Some particularly choice garments in the way of broadcloth, short mantles, trimmed with tail fur trimmings in different colors, are offered at great bargains. Those who have not examined the stock (which includes everything) will save money by doing so now, when still greater bargains will be offered during the great holiday sale.

GILLEN'S SHAWL STOCK
Still leads, as usual, and there have just been opened something very choice in line Beavers, as well as Paisley and Broches. An unbroken line in all grades of woolen shawls. Prices very down.

HOLIDAY NOVELTIES.
Silk handkerchiefs for the million (it's a fact) from a good value at 20c to the finest brocade silk handkerchief. Also something extremely fine in silk mufflers. The line of these goods is positively unequalled in the city. Something extra choice in ladies' and gents' white and colored bordered hemstitched hdkfs. Prices on these goods equally low as that given on all other lines of merchandise during the holiday sale.

Many other novelties in the way of hoods, nubbins, scarfs, gloves, notions suitable for the occasion, are in stock in immense quantities. And it is a solemn fact that this truly immense stock must be seen, examined and compared to be appreciated, as space will not permit the facts to be given in detail. It is complete in every department, and prices are offered that cannot be met this side the manufacturers, and on some very choice and desirable goods they are much lower than manufacturers' prices. The truth is, more merchandise can be bought for a given amount of money at Gillen's than at any house in this county. Call and see.

Never Buy Jewelry
Until you have been to Hess's place of business, west of court house. He has now ready for holiday inspection the largest assortment of gems in jewelry that has yet been offered to the trade, and it is not stretching it one particle to say that he keeps the best and most unexceptionable stock, from the brilliant diamonds to an ordinary clock. He handles a stock that gives customers a good chance to select from. He has an extraordinary display of hollow silverware, watches in gold and silver, bracelets, bangles, napkin rings, finger rings and many beautiful things too numerous to mention. We want to tell you not to forget to call on D. Hess for your holiday jewelry. We know he will make it interesting for you.

Ho, for Christmas!

Having personally selected a very fine stock of fancy confectionery in Chicago, I invite everybody to call at the Vienna Bakery on Madison street, and inspect the same. I challenge anybody to show a finer selected stock of holiday goods, and it is large enough to hold out till after New Year's. Come one, come all. Respectfully,
MARTIN KIM.

If you want a new feather, a nice tip or ribbon for Christmas, call at Mrs. Hendrich's Fashion Emporium, east of court house.
